Ancient & Colonial Bespoke

PRIVATE TOUR

Chichen Itza – Valladolid - Cenote $250PAX (2 people min)

Coba – Valladolid - Convento San Bernadino $175PAX (2 person min)

It is amazing to think that the vast majority of visitors to the Yucatan Peninsula do not get beyond the modern high rise landscapes of Cancun or Playa del Carmen. As visitors to Tulum we imagine that you appreciate a less formulaic type of tour and as Chichén Itzá is the most famous and spectacular archeological site on the Yucatan peninsula and is crowded with day-trippers from Cancun, we offer a slightly different approach. Chichén is located just outside of the small Spanish colonial city of Valladolid so we try to arrive as early as possible at the Mayan site, spend two hours there and then head to Valladolid while the coach tours are only just arriving to Chichén Itzá.

Coba is a less developed site than Chichén, but has the advantage of still allowing visitors to climb the pyramid (please be aware that there are not a lot of health and safety measures in place, a piece of rope for a handrail !!!)

Valladolid is small city but has a very special atmosphere and is recognized here as a "Pueblo Magico". The convent is remarkably unrestored and charming. Lunch is simple, but enjoyed in a wonderful old place right on the town square.

These places feel like another world from Tulum and will give you a different kind of memory of this very special piece of Mexico.

Tour Program:

- 7-7:30am: pick up at the hotel
- Visit the ruins at Chichén Itzá or Coba
- Traditional lunch in Valladolid and stroll in the main square
- Visit the Convent San Bernardino of Valladolid or a nearby Cenote
- 5:30-6pm: drop off at the hotel

For Whom?

- This is a long day, but after the whirl of Chichén Itzá or Cobá, Valladolid has a gentle restorative air that allows you to fully absorb the morning sights.

Included in Tour:

- Transportation in air-conditioned car
- Local Guide
- Entrance to archeological site and convent or Cenote
- Lunch, Snacks and Drinks

Temples & Jungle

Included in Tour:

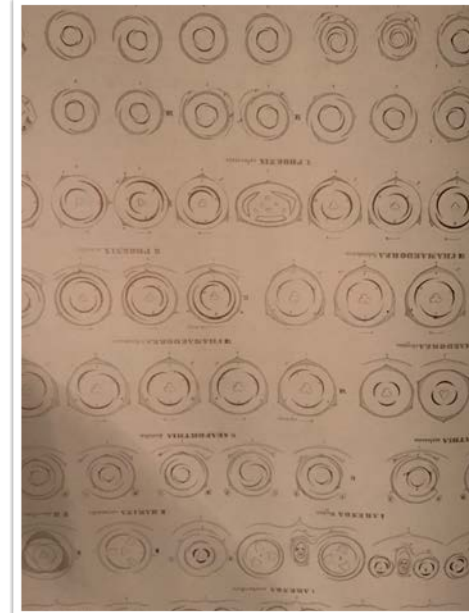

Coba Ruins - Wild Cenote - Monkey Reserve - Artisan Markets

PRIVATE TOUR Full Day $200PAX (2 person min)

Explore the wonderfully unspoiled Mayan ruins of Coba by bicycle. This ancient ruined city is only partially revealed in the wild jungle setting. Dating from the late-classic period (600-1000 A.D.), this important site was built as a metropolis and capital of a large state that extended from the Peten in Guatemala to the Gulf of Mexico. Coba is famous for its two grand pyramids (from the top of which you can appreciate a spectacular view over miles of virgin jungle), its ball court, its stelae, reminiscent of those at the famous Tikal, and its painting fragments. Following a cooling dip in a nearby cenote we will enjoy a traditional Yucatec lunch, before continuing on to the Protected Monkey Reserve deeper into the jungle. On the return journey we will stop at a local Mayan Village where numerous authentic artisan handicrafts and artworks can be found at a fraction of the price of those in the larger tourist towns of the Riviera Maya.

- Discover Coba Ruins by bike - the most important archeological site in the state of Quintana Roo
